Stylish, with a love of detail, confident, feminine, emotional, binding, humorous, to the point. Cornelia Poletto is like that - and so is her magazine.

CORNELIA POLETTTO is a personal invitation to readers to rediscover the pleasures in their lives and to be inspired by style. 40 recipes from the top chef form the basis for a magazine that is as individual as Cornelia Poletto herself.

The focus is on Mediterranean-inspired cuisine à la Poletto, complemented by the best from Germany and the whole world. Photo galleries, interviews and features on food culture, product knowledge and hospitality round off the magazine.

This mixture is spiced up with a pinch of fashion, beauty, design and travel. The magazine is always at eye level with its readers.
